About Farm Bureaus. William Hirth of Columbia, pres dent of the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation, declared that "one-half the bureaus of the State government should be abolished." He said it was necessary to place in State positions "men more interested in economy and efficiency than in taking care of their brothers'-in law." and to elect legislators pledged to elimination of waste. He specified the teaching of vaca as a State expenditure of doubtful value, saying that only about 2000 pupils were taking this study, in all the schools of the State. W. Frank Carter of St. Louis said it was possible to have stupid economy, as well as stupid expenditure, and he spoke of the need for "less government in business and more business in government."

Other speakers were W. J. Dy-

To those to whom price is important this statement will appeal: "You can always buy a better Piano for a smaller sum than elsewhere at Conroy's," and by this, Conroy's include all sales of all descriptions.

28 Months to Pay

THE MAN of moderate income is welcome here. He can quickly complete arrangements without a drain on his resources. Select the model most appealing to you. Delivery will be made at once or as you desire. A small sum, virtually only the cartage charge, is asked as evidence of good faith. Payments do not begin until after January 1st, 1926. These terms apply on virtually any Piano in stock.

The World's Choice of Beautiful Pianos

The Conroy Piano

That incomparably better instrument has arrived and is here for your delectation. A glance at the exquisite craftsmanship and indescribably lovely tone of this super piano will be so convincing that further mention of its obvious superiority will be unnecessary. There is, however, no mystery or Alladin and the lamp atmosphere concerning the manner in which we attain the results available in the Conroy. We simply applied science to the art of piano building. We were not content with the high-priced products of those who followed the haphazard "hit or miss style" of their grandfathers, but instead incorporated engineering facts, proven facts, into our piano. The Conroy instrument, therefore, is the one modern piano-it costs more to build hence the price is higher. Deliveries will be irregular until after Christmas. Should you however acquire a Conroy we will place a temporary instrument in your home.

Conroy

The reproducing instruments are identical in size and appearance as the Conroy Grands and are equipped with the original Welte-Mignon reproducing action.

Other Superb Instruments

As fit comparison for the Conroy you will find The Hazelton, The Lester, The Starr, The Autopiano, The Kohler & Campbell, along with other time honored and well known instruments. Conroys is virtually several piano stores in one. At least that will be your impression after inspecting the dazzling array of new instruments in our

WASHINGTON AT EIGHTH

REPORT FAVORS AIR

Encouragement of Commercial Aviation Urged by National Advisory Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10 .- Creation of a bureau of air navigation in the Department of Commerce to regulate and encourage commerctal aviation, continuance of a pollcy of aircraft development in the light of the loss of the Shenandoah ice to all sections of the country ere recommended in the annual eport submitted to Congress today the National Advisory Commitee for Aeronautics.

Indorsing the report in a letter f transmittal, President Coolidge eclared a statement by the committee that "America is at least abreast of other progressive nations in the technical development of aircraft for military purposes" should "dispel the impression" that this country is lagging in this this regard was commended to ongress as "the most authoritative that can be had." Research Needed.

The President agreed with the committee that "substantial progess in aeronautics is dependent argely upon scientific research,

"I believe that the work of the committee is the most fundamen-tal activity of the Government in onnection with the development of aeronautics and that its continuance is essential if America is to maintain its present advanced position in aircraft's development. "The condition of the aircraft industry and the prospects for the development of commercial avia-tion on a sound basis have materially improved during the past year. To encourage the developnent of commercial aviation, I wish especially to indorse the rec ommendation of the committee for the creation of a bureau of air navigation in the Department of In recommending such a bureau, ie committee reiterated a sugges on made in past years and took a position similar to that of the President's Air Board.

Settlement of Disputes.
It also urged a "settlement of the controversies in aeronautics that have existed since the war" and in referring to "the continued unrest n aeronautical circles," declared the best results have not been obained and will not be obtained as long as the personnel are disturbed nd their attention distracted from their real duties." "It is most desirable therefore, the committee continued, "that measures to improve the situation be formulated and carried into effect without delay." In this connection, the committee said the reports of the President's air board and that yet to be made public by the Lampert Investigating Committee as well as that the special Committee on Civil Aviation of the Department of Commerce and American engineerng council "should serve to clarify the public mind and to focus attention on the major problems Charles D. Walcott, secretary of he Smithsonian Institution, who is hairman of the committee. deplared in an accompanying letter hat gratifying progress had been nade last year in improving the performance and reliability of aircraft, and that the committee's program of continuous scientific esearch "gives promise of mainaining America's advanced posiion among progressive nations in he technical development of aireraft for military purposes.

FASCIST SALUTE AS GREETING Hat Tipping and How Do You Do to Be Abolished in Italy.

ROME, Dec. 10.—"How do you o," handshaking and hat tipping have been officially aboltshed throughout Italy. From this week on all public employes and all-school children will be obliged to greet their superiors and each other with the "Fascist salute," an upraised right arm, as was the practice in anotent Rome. Premier ole evidence that all Italy is now Fascist while the silence and brevity of the new greeting will be conducive to better work.

Real Estate Scheme Changed. The history of the Sesqui-Cen ennial dates back to 1916, when was first proposed by the late John Wannamaker, It was "killed" by former Mayor J. Hampton Moore, but was revived under Mayor Kendrick. Scandal after scandal obstructed the path of the ex-position. Graft charges were aired ime and again. It was alleged that the whole affair was simply a real estate scheme to boom South Philadelphia, which is Representative Vare's political stronghold. Big industrial firms fought the plan on the ground it would upset the nornal life of the city.

The crisis came a month ago when Col. D. C. Collier, veteran exposition man, resigned as directorgeneral, and the Government at Washington began to inquire whether it was going to have to apologize and withdraw the invitations it had extended to foreign

EGANITE IS FINED $500 FOR CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPON Former Convict and Two Others

Plead Guilty to Charge Before Judge Frey. Fred Burke, former convict an Egan gangster, recently acquitted

by a jury after trial on a charge of participating in the $38,300 robbery of the United Railways gen eral office, July 2, 1923, pleaded guilty yesterday, with two other men, to a charge of carrying concealed weapons, before Circuit They were fined $500 each

Burke paid the fine and $19.80 costs in bills he peeled from a roll in his pocket. Milford Jones was granted 30 days' grace in which raise the money. Gus Winklenow serving a nine-months' work house sentence for felonious wounding by auto, will serve time for his fine concurrently with the previous sentnece.

The Circuit Attorney recommended fines of $250, but Judge Frey doubled the amount. It was explained that it would be ex-tremely difficult to convince a jury the men were guilty, inasmuch as they were arrested near an automobile in which a revolver was found June 6 last. When Burke was acquitted last month Judge Mix described the verdict as "an nsult to the intelligence of the people of St. Louis." Missouri Police Chief Wins Suit. CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Dec.

10. - A jury here yesterday re turned a verdict in favor of Chief of Police W. W. Billings, who was sued for $5000 damages by Mrs. Minnie Foeste of Cape Girardeau for alleged false arrest. The suit grew out of detention of Mrs. Foeste by police for several hours while they were investigating a robhery. Her son had confessed that he and another youth had stolen sum of money and turned it ove

read the newspapers that the sentiment against prohibition is crystallizing in Congress and something likely will come of it, but a Congressman who is anything but a soda-popper assures me that this is only one of those mirages common to all deserts. "The bills that have been introduced here are all for home consumption," my inform-"This is true of those duced by both sides. If Mr. Hill of Maryland thinks his opposition to pr might seem to his constituents to be cooling, he introduces a bill to remind them Upshaw of Georgia.

"There is no change in the situation. The most votes the wets have ever counted in the House is 120, and I don't think they can count any more than that today. may seem from a distance that the question is boiling, but as a matter of little is said of it about the Capitol. The wets know they are in a hopeless minority, and the drys know they are still rather easily on top. If it serves the political pur-poses of both to make it appear to the folks at home that this is not the case, we must remember that a little make-believe now and then has been found extremely useful in a political career. That is all the significance that can be attached to the various bills proposing to make us either wetter or drier. We are just about as wet as we are going to be for some time to come, and we are also just about as dry as we are going to be for some time to come. The drys would like to emphasize their control in some way, but they are fearful of making political capital for the other side." The truth is that Congress is without an issue, and except for the painful 'necessity o keep on going until some time in the spring, there is no reason why the boys should not be out of their seats before Christmas. The insurgents, who ordinarily make the sessions interesting, are in the dumps and don't feel that there is any public sentiment behind them. The masses who are always the inspiration of insurgency have apparently given up politics. This is a great loss to Washington has hitherto felt that the eyes of the people are on it and that the popular wrath is likely at any moment to explode over its head. The discovery that there such a thing as the popular wrath and that politicians are accountable only to one another has left Washington in some confusion of mind. The only people who have found something to take the place of fear of the people are the Republican regulars, who realize now that they are free to do whatever they like to their own insurgents. They are right gleeful about this, and are laughing to think they ever thought they couldn't. The younger La Follette will therefore never get where his father got. He will be summarily dealt with. It was commonly supposed during the career of the elder La Foliette that he had a strong hold upon popular fancy and ought be tolerated lest the people be aroused The last presidential campaign showed how hollow that fear was. The regular Republicans will forgive him much, but they will never forgive him for not running for President before he did. That delay caused hem to forbear doing to him what they will do to his son.

Meanwhile Mr. Coolidge, who is not insensible to that state of mind by which he is surrounded, becomes always a little bold. er in saying why we have government at all. We have it for the benefit of business, as he quite clearly indicated in his New York speech, and all theories to the contrary are as dead as Pempey. We have allied business with the state as surely as we once allied religion with it, and probably the new alliance will last as long and in time become as bothersome as the old one did. of our two-story thinkers. Whether we are going in the right direction, as the President says, may per-haps be questioned; but it is at least certain that we are going in what he conceives to be the right direction. One has to go back before the first term of Grover Cleveland to recall a time when the Republicans so completely held the field as they do today. It is an axiom in Washington that only those things which have the sanction of the administration have the slightest chance to get through Congress. Its reign is absolute. Some observers are saving that the tide of reaction is running so strong in Washington that even the Democrats are no longer in opposition. It is said that the vote on the tax bill will show this to

AMONG FIVE INDICTED

Conspiracy to Steal Oil Well Supplies and Get Control Over Leases Charged.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Dec. 10. -E. R. Hughes, chairman of the Corporation Commission, three former members of the comission's oil and gas conservation department and one oil operator SAXOPHONES conspiracy to steal oil well supplies and conspiracy to obtain conrol over oil leases by extortion. The ndictments were returned late yeserday by a District Court grand jury which began deliberations

W. C. (Rube) Geers, former chief of the conservation department; J. E. Amis and J. J. Gouy, former conservation agents, and Boone D. Hite, named as president of the Bronx Oil Co., were indicted with Hughes. Geers resigned under fire jast August during a hearing by the commission, while Amis and Gouy were discharged several weeks later. Hughes, Geers and Hite pleaded not guilty when arraigned today. They were released n $5000 bond each.

All Decline Statements. None of the five men have been arrested but all have stated they would surrender voluntarily. None would make any comment.

The indictment charging conpiracy to commit grand larceny n the sum of $11,072 grew out of ransactions in Coal County, where it is alleged equipment of that value was stolen from a lease. Theft of $6000 worth of tools from a lease in Kay County also is alleged.

The extortion charge dealt with the obtaining of a lease in Kay County which was the property of the Hopper Oil Co. of Hutchinson, Rules of the Department.

Rules of the conservation department are explained in the indictments, violations of which constitute a separate offense each day with a maximum fine of $500. The indictments also allege that the defendants threatened operators with punishment under the rules of the commission and converted properties to their own use under agreement to protect the men who were charged with violations. Conviction on any count in either the conspiracy to commit larceny or conspiracy to extort indictments carries a maximum sentence of five years' imprisonment.

Can You Find the Twins?

On your toes, EVERBODY. Here's the greatmost fun. Get out your "specs," sharpen up your pencil, and FIND THE TWINS.

There are 18 pictures of this lovely lady on this page. To be sure they all look alike, but examine them closer. Two, and only two of them are exact duplicates. Yes, siree. Only two of them are the real twins. Can you find them carefully and be sure to read the clues

When you have found the twins, cut them out and send them in as soon as possible. These Clues Will Help

At first glance all of the pictures look alike. But on closer examination you will see that almost everyone differs in some way from all the others. In some the difference may be in the dark or fight band on the brim of the hat, or the trimming on the collar. Or, some may wear necklaces, or ear-rings, or both. Only two are exactly alike. No, it's not as easy as it looks. You must search carefully.

Just look closely—make sure that you have the twins, then send in your answer. Somebody who finds the right twins is going to win $500 in cash. Make that "somebody" be you. There are 100 prizes in all and in addition Valuable Gift Bonds Will Also Be Given.

Send No Money—Costs Nothing to Try FIND THE TWINS—Send in your answer. It's all free. No list of words to write, no money to send in nothing to seil. And don't forget, the First Prize is $500 in Cash, Second Prize is $200 in Cash, etc. Some mighty big rewards for a little earnest effort. Let's see how clever you are. Let's see how badly you want that $500. Don't waste a single minute's time. Get the family together and have them help you find the twins. And, most of all, send them in just as soon as you possibly can.

Rules and Instructions

1. Answers should be mailed not later than March 31, 1926, and only one answer from a family permitted.

Job of 1876 Reversed. Henry S. Caulfield, chairman of he board, who was counsel for the 1913-14 Board of Freeholders, is especially optimistic about success in the work, in view of the record of the 1876 Board of Freeholders, which did its task in 90 days. He compares the 1876 work with that before the board today. The problem now is to bring about some sort of whole or partial amalgamation of city and county, as the city has grown beyond its political onds, and not much change of the burn, sourness, fullness, flatulence, Charter is involved. The problem palpitation, vanish.

A city newspaper opposing the eparation of '76 declared then hat the board had spent only bout two weeks of real activity in drafting its scheme. On the other and, the 1913-14 board was chiefconcerned with creating a detailed modern Charter, and it took 13 months. It appears the present body can make whatever inciental changes in the Charter may become necessary.

Factors in Delay. Progress by the present board has been delayed by opposition of some county members to sur-rendering powers of the county. They assert they are following the wish of their constituents, but the ply recent statistics indicative of the county voters' wishes lie in the poll on constitutional amendments nabling annexation, which oblarge majorities in the county. Expansion opponents reply to this that the county only vants to settle the discussion. The board has nine county and nine ity members.

"There is a reasonable possibility county members will see the ques-tion in a different light," Chairman Caulfield said to the Post-Dispatch.
They think of it now as the city taking in the county and don't seem to grasp the idea of becom-ing all one community. I think there is a reasonable prospect they will see the city is not trying to swallow them up.
"I am hopeful some procedure under plan No. 1, the consolida-tion of city and county territories and governments into one legal subdivision under a municipal government of the city, may be followed, at least with modifications to meet objections of county members. The fact that Robert A. Roessel, a coun'y freeholder, has a scheme under plan No. 1 shows there is no repugnance in this plan to some county members. It is worth striving for to see if we cannot meet the objections to the municipalities in the county being deas to the constitutional possibility of retaining separate municipalities under plan No. 1, but this is simply a matter for our delibera-There are 11 lawyers on the James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helples. and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the ac-cumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dis-solved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescrip-tion that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called ALLENRHU, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urring he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and drugstas everywhere to dispense ALLENRHU with the understanding that if the first plut bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

For Sale by Lots. Since the revolution, the crown jewels have been supplemented by an immense quantity worth many various sources. The mineral wealth in these vaults partly guarantee Russia's currency. A comparatively small part has been sold. One reason for this is that the soviet government insists on com pulsory sorting, requiring purchas-

Many of these jewels are of such imposing size that they could not harmonize except with the crown of an Indian rajah in the cases of, a mu seum. Private purchasers would be obliged to recut them, possibly reducing their intrinsic value and destroying entirely their historica and sentimental value. The price of this lot also is such that it has not caused a queue to form in front of the treasury door, royalty today not being conspicuous in the jewel market, and only a combination of strongly financed bankers would be able to swing the transaction.

With a Prayer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Police nd prayer both are valuable aids in ending rows, in the opinion of members of the Washington Aveue Baptist Church of Brooklyn. Communicants of the church met last night to discuss efforts of one faction to oust the pastor, the Rev. Robert H. McCaul, over church fi-nances, and the meeting became so heated a policeman responded. "Let us have peace," suggested Patrolman Max Levy, but the conroversy became more boisterous nd the officer at length shouted: "You are in a church, you people. Don't you know enough to respect our church building? If you want fight, why don't you go out-In the ensuing silence when no one responded to the policeman's query, the pastor begged the dis-

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 10.—Ar thentic fossil tusk of the woolly lephant of the glacial or postglacial period, with gold fillings like a nodern tooth, has been presented to the museum of the University of Vashington by Edward Squires, who discovered it on a mining claim on Dominion Creek, 40 miles from Dawson, Yukon Territory.

The tusk is 10 feet long and reighs 250 pounds. The theory of Nathan Kresge, museum caretaker and former Alaskan, is that the relic was there when tons of earth with pay-streak settled down, so gold nuggets were forced into the cracks of the tusk, giving the ef-fect of modern gold tooth fillings.

CODE HERE TO BE DISCUSSED

Opinions of Structural Engineers and Architects, Problems of steel building con-struction in St. Louis are to be discussed at a Dutch-treat dinner at the Melbourne Hotel next Tuesday evening, invitations to which have been sent out by Building Commis. sioner Christopher. Those invited are structural engineers and archi-

The standard specifications of the American Institute of Steel Construction will be discussed, with the question whether those specifications should be incorporated into the city's building code. Lee S. Miller, chief engineers of the American Institute of Steel Construction. and Milo S. Ketchum, professor of engineering in the University of Illinois, are expected to speak at the dinner. Adoption of the standard specifications here would lower rather than raise the present require-ments. At present, an 18,000-pound stress test is insisted upon. The standard specifications require only a 16,000-pound stress. It is held by some steel men that steel construction here is too costly at present, and that changes in the reout sacrificing safety, are desirable. At present, there is much more reinforced concrete than steel construction in building enterprises

Salesman Wanted

ACTION SALESMEN, WE CAN INTEREST YOU—SURE We belong to the most responsi-ble National and Local Business Organizations. We have as our Clients 22,000 of the most con-spicuous and best rated concerns in America.

We are an old-established, large highly rated INDUSTRIAL SERVICE CONCERN, the acknowledged leader in our line. You have seen our full-pace national advertising in Forbes', Nation's Business, Management, We have a Permanent National Sales Organization that covers this country. We have increased our Sales Volume over 900% since 1920 and over 100% again this year. We have no dull years; no dull months.

This is an individual preposi-tion that is in a field by itself without real competition. We will prove to your satisfaction that salesman after salesman made from $11,000 to $12,000 last year and the year before, and the year before that. The PROOF of every statement we make here is worked out in the Nth degree and ready for your consideration in very understandable form.

We have in our force a dozen of the Classiest Stock Saleamen in America. We have the three best Book Saleamen in America. We Book Salesmen in America. We have several "stars" from the Advertising and Specialty fields. These men came to us voluntarily and they are making more with us than they ever made elsewhere because their past Sales experience in selling chief Executives qualified them to quickly sell the same type of Executives in our work.

We are all salesmen over here. We have only the salesman's viewpoint. As individuals we've been over every jump you've ever been over every jump you've ever been over. We know your heart and your mind and we're with you all the way for a square deal. We've never had one minute's trouble with any salesman who ever worked for us. We pay what's due promptly. We never cut commissions when the men prosper, and we never will.

Their eyes met for a moment of herrified understanding.

The cup Joan held in her hand crashed to the floor and she closed her eyes for an instant, while an expression of pain, more intense than anything Sue had ever seen, crossed her face. She reeled mo-mentarily and Sue sprang up to put an assisting arm about her. "Don't take it that way, dar-

"Do you want to try?" Jean asked. "It's almost certain death.

She turned back into the room "You first," she told Joan. But the latter looked back over her shoulder at the approaching inferne and shuddered.

"No! You must have your chance first. I can stand it. Go quickly. Don't waste time with words."

"I didn't sleep very well last night," he said grimly. "Dare say e been working too steadily on the book and my nerves are shot, so I rose early and came into New York. Happened to see a report of the fire in a morning edition of the paper and—well," he shrugged, "I called up your house and they ing your crazy interest in this fool place (pardon me, Miss Blanchard)", he apologized with a bow to Joan, who was smiling as if she had a little secret joke of her own, 'anyway, I thought I'd come down and see if there was anything I could do. You see, I"-

MacDonald winked at Sue who promptly flushed.

She understood that both Joan and MacDonald believed that Alvin Teall had come dashing down to the East Side fire because he believed that his fiancee was in danger. That was quite as should be but what puzzled her was his real reason for coming.

Why should he show such con corn for one he disliked and whom he frankly blamed for disturbing his solitude and putting him to great deal of inconvenience and embarrassment.

"It was very kind of you come," she said with dignity, keeping in mind their quarrel of the night before, "but not at all necessary. Mr. MacDonald has been wonderful, he saved our lives, you

"Oh, forget it," Jerry MacDonald begged. "Come eat some breakfast-or rather luncheon. I warn you it's rotten food. I had to get it from the corner since our little cafeteria has gone up in smoke."

"You have been so good." Joan said as she accepted the coffee he handed her. "I'll tell you what we will do. We'll have this bite to eat and then we will go back to Long Island in Mr. Teall's car, if he will be kind enough to take us. You must come too," she told Mac-Donald, "I want my family to meet

Sue glanced at MacDonald and noted the radiance of his expres-sion. She knew it was the first time Joan had ever asked him to come to her home. She felt that

After all, she decided, the fire in the settlement house could not be characterized as a total disaster, since it had revealed to Joan what sort of man Tony Carrar was. Tony's day was done as far as Joan was concerned; of that Sue was assured, but Jerry MacDonald's was just beginning.

Dec. 10, 1720—205 years ago— the Mississippi Bubble burst. John Law, an adventurous Scotchman, had so captivated Paris by his spectacular selling of shares in his new "Company of the West" that the streets near his office were thronged with applicants day and night. Louis XV, falling for his scheme, had incorporated the territory of Louisiana into his bank, and great promise was held out for gold speculation along the Mississippi. But soon the amount of notes issued by Law more than doubled all the specie circulating in France. Then a national panic ensued, and Law was forced by his disappointed and infuriated victims to flee from the scene of his Christmas—the Season of Love.

NCE each year comes the opportunity for each person to be born anew. No matter how weary, how self-centered, how narrow, how shriveled, or how engrossed we have become through 12 months' pursuit of money, glory or success-the chance comes at Christmas for all of us to become new men and women.

Selfish gain may dominate our lives for 11 months and two weeks. But for the fortnight before Christmas, at least, unselfish love should be the triumphant note.

The king of the Christmas season is the child.

How much happier we all could be if we could grasp his carefree spirit, and give of our love as unstintingly! The child puts his heart into Christmas, and therefore he takes a heart full of love with him, when the day is done. Christmas is the time to remember all the big and little kindnesses which have been bestowed upon us, throughout the entire wear. What a happy surprise we can give some employe or servant who has served us faithfully, if we show our appreciation by some thoughtfully selected gift! What joy it will give to the childhood friend whom we have not seen for years, to be remembered by us when he opens his mail from Santa Claus. Whatever you give, give it with love.

No matter how much money you spend, you can give no more than your friendship or love with each gift.

It only costs a few pennies to send a card, and that, with your love, to the friend that really matters, will suffice.

The day of giving extravagant gifts beyond the giver's means, has passed. Today it is the spirit behind the gift that counts. The true Christmas spirit never asks: "What am I going to get in return for what I give?" Or "Can I make just as big an impression by giving something a little cheaper?" The money tag attached to the gift, either invisibly or visibly, desecrates the true spirit of this yearly season of love. It is not necessary to exceed the budget you can easily afford, when making your Christmas selections. Be sane, in choosing your Christmas gifts, so that when the January 1 bills come due, you will not be filled with regrets.

But whatever you have to regret-let it not be on the side of your own meanness, selfishness or forgetfulness.

Keep the world's faith in Santa Claus and don't let the joily old man with the reindeer corner all the joy for himself. Open your Christmas heart and spread some love, too! (Copyright, 1925)

Billy Mink Brings News

Some folk delight in news that's bad. Rut as for me it makes me sad.

D ADDY the Beaver was well satisfied with the way things were going. It was a great task, a very great task, to build up that new dam to make the new pond up there in the swamp, but when the work was finished it would be worth all it had cost. Already that pond was becoming of some size, and it was with real regret that Paddy had left it with the others to come down to their home that evening. But they had worked hard all day and Paddy knew that without rest they could not continue to work.
